

April 6th - 10th

Students in grades 6 - 8,

Take the #isleLEARN Pledge by completing one activity each day for your grade level.

Grade	Citizenship	Communication	Critical Thinking	Collaboration	Creative Thinking
6th Grade	How to Compromise? There were many compromises created before the Civil War to keep the peace among regions. How have you compromised with a family member or friend to keep the peace?	the story back to them and	Open Middle - Write an expression that is equivalent to 64 using each of the following numbers and symbols only once in the expression. 7, 7, 7, 2, +, ÷, () Share your expression!	Physical and Chemical Change Partner Challenge - Head to the kitchen and one person find/create a physical change and one person create a chemical change. Then switch roles! Be careful and ask for adult help if needed!	Start a Band - Come up with lyrics and music about your favorite thing you learned from this year so far. Get creative with the instruments!
7th Grade	Become a Primary Source - This is a historical event that you will remember for years to come. Over time, you may forget the small details of what this time was like. Keep a daily "Quarantine Journal" that describes your daily activities and feelings.	seventeen syllables, written in a 5/7/5 syllable count.	Let's Dance! Make up a dance that uses 3 translations and 3 reflections. Perform it for a family member or record and share.	animal cell who meet and discover their differences. *Remember that plant cells have cell walls and	Rhyme Time! Listen to this catchy song about types of angles: https://tinyurl.com/tyuf3lr Music and rhyme help our brains remember! Write your own catchy song, or jingle, that could help your classmates remember a skill in any subject.
8th Grade	The Role of a Citizen - Research the responsibilities of a citizen. Consider these responsibilities and create an infographic / poster about the role of citizens during this pandemic.	family member and identify the	The Heart of the Matter - Measure your heart beat for 10 seconds. Convert to beats per minute. Run around and then measure again. What is the percentage increase?	Engineers solve problems to improve our lives. With a	Fitness Instructor - Create your own workout and/or dance routine. Teach it to your family members.