Attention Titans,

You are challenged to read as many great books as you can this summer.

Log the books you read this summer to earn entries into our prize drawing in September.

- Consider participating in the Blackwater Regional Library Program linked here.
- You can register for a Blackwater Regional Library card online linked here
- Log the books that you read using this Summer Reading Log linked here or simply make a list of the books you read on your own paper and include mini book reviews.
- Each book that you read will earn you one entry into the prize drawing in September.

Have a great summer reading!

Thank you,
